The big black will have no such easy mark to pum-2570 mel as he had with Flynn, Burns and 9 14 1mo Kaufman—he will not be able to coax the Michigander within range of his long left swing and deadly right uppercut, nor to stand set and ready for the Michigander's rushes. That is, not if Ketchel carries out the cam-paign which he and Willus Britt have mapped out. "We are going to make the big smoke do just as much leading as we do," declared the Irrepressible One recently. "There is an impression that Stanley intends to wade into Johnson the way these other be did; well, I only hope the dinge thinks so, for then he will get the surprise of his life. There is a point just between Johnson's long swing and his short uppercut which might properly be called a 'neutral zone,' and there you will find Mr. Ketchel most of the time, plugging Lil' Arthur's mid-riff with those pile-driving smashes of his. Believe me, this is not going to be a runaway for the champion—at least not for the heavyweight cham-

Lighter Man Wins.

Then another member of the party pointed out the number of champion ship contests in which the lighter has won. "Go as far back as Tom Sayers and John C. Heenan," he said, "and you will find constantly recurring instances of this. The Heenan-Sayers fight was called a draw, in spite of the fact that Heenan out-weighed the Britisher by almost forty pounds; Fitzsimmons, a midleweight, defeated Corbett when the latter weighed 190 pounds; McGovern knocked out Erne; Gans secured a decision over Walcott, and so on down the line until you come to Ketchel himself, who trounced Jack O'Brien with the latter weighing several more pounds than himself. Of course, there have been exceptions, but the lighter men of the ring have been by far the most consistent performers of the two.

"It is the same with so-called 'dark Many and many a time has horses. the chap who was not conceded a chance come through and sprawled his opponent on the mat. One of the most notable instances the couplet of victories which Nelson scored over Gans. The first one found Bat on the short end of a 10 to 3 proposition; in the second he was vorite. McGovern, when he toppled Harlem Tommy Murphy to the mat, provided another illustration of the 'dark horse' proposition and got a dose of his own medicine when Young Corbett came out of the West and floored him in two rounds at Hart Frankie Neil was a despised short-end when he tangled up Harry Forbes-but he delivered the goods all right. O'Brien beat Fitzsimmons under the same conditions; Corbett was not conceded a chance against John L. Sullivan; George Dixon, Joe Walcottt, Jack Root, Tommy Ryan, Frank Erne and the ever-great Jack Dempsey went the same route, losing to the 'dark horse,' who fooled all the wise ones. Ketchel has done it himself, licking Papke after the latter had trounced him in Los Angeles-so it is not safe to say that he hasn't a chance with Johnson, or

AMERICAN LEAGUE TEAM

Chicago, Oct. 10 .- The Chicago team of the American League won their first game of the series for the city championship, from the Nationals, 2 to 1. The Nationals were the first to score. Pitcher Walsh walked the first two men and the third man up sacrificed, after Evers had stolen a base. Chance followed with a sharp hit and Evers was caught, but Sheckard scored. Walsh then held his opponents safe the remainder of the second with two singles and a base on balls, which filled the bases. Sullivan's long ly to left field scored Dougherty. They did not score again until the ninth. Walsh was retired and Altizer was given a base on the left field scored cast. He went to the extreme end of the field score and fifteen seconds after his propeller was started, he was in the air headed cast. He went to the extreme end of the field score. The American Leaguers started the park and Altizer was given a base on balls. Schulte caught Isbell's long fly and Cole followed with a single. Dough-erty received a base on balls, filling Doughthe bases. Purtell was at bat and Reulbach was preparing to deliver the ball when Altizer started to steal home. Reulbach's attention was called to the man at third and he did not deliver the ball. Umpire O'Day called a balk and Altizer scored the win which won the game. Rain began to fall in the fourth inning and continued throughout the game. The crowd, which was one of the largest ever within the West Side enclosure, remained throughout the contest. The paid attendance was given out lowed as usual. The paid attendance was given out as being 24,034; the gross receipts were $16,162.75 of which the national commission receives $1,616.37; the players share is $8,728.42 and each of the clubs will receive $2,909.48.
